

17th ABC Convention Competition Categories in Melbourne 2017

Vintage

Showcase Barbie's early years by displaying your dolls and fashions from Mattel's Original Vintage collections.

One of a Kind Fashion

Create a One of a Kind outfit to celebrate 'The Age of Style', Mid 1950s to Mid 1960s. Original Mattel manufactured dolls only, fashion made by entrant.

One of a Kind Doll

Create a One of a Kind doll by rerooting, repainting and redressing your doll to portray the age of femininity and elegance, mid 1950s to mid 1960s. Mattel manufactured dolls altered by entrant, wearing fashion made by entrant or Mattel.

Diorama

Create a diorama to celebrate the glamorous lifestyle that Barbie enjoys. Diorama size maximum 60cm x 60cm floor area and Mattel manufactured dolls.

Frankendolly

Mix and match heads and bodies from different dolls, even non Mattel, to create your own unique Queen of Style. Fashions by entrant or Mattel.

Mix and Match

Mix and match items from Barbie's fantastic collection of clothes, to create your own take on this elegant period of fashion. Mattel dolls and fashions, other accessories allowed.

Photographic

Create a photographic image that celebrates Australian fashion and Barbie's iconic style.

Paperdoll original

Display one of your original vintage paperdolls to rekindle those memories from our childhood.

Paper Doll Own Creation

Design your own Paper Doll, inspired by the era and Australian Fashion. Use water colours, coloured pencils, markers or any other traditional medium that inspires you.

Melbourne Cup Fashion

Melbourne fashion really comes to life every year for the Melbourne Cup. Create that ultimate ensemble for your doll, think fantastic hats, co-ordinated accessories and show stopping outfits for your fashion dolls. Maybe even Ken will get a look in, with a great suit and tie. Fashions made by entrant. Mattel dolls.

Non Mattel Fashion Doll Outfit

Dress your non Mattel fashion doll in her most glamorous outfit for the Melbourne Cup.

Barbie Craft

Display your craft creation that is inspired by Barbie and her friends.

All the category entrants will be photographed and displayed in the slide show at our presentation of competition winners at the Sunday Presentation Ceremony.

Delegates will set up their own displays for the competition and also remove them for packing on Saturday night.
